MEMORANDUM FOR: Assistant Director for Current Intelligence
SUBJECT : Khrushchev's Bid for Mastery

1. I found the attached Foreign Office narrative extremely interesting and illustrative of what can be done to reconstruct situations without the assistance of a single classified item of information.

2. I would like comments of your people on its substantive accuracy not to include the generalities contained in the conclusion on page 32 and your comments as to why we should not do something similar in part III of the Weekly from time to time. I think you should coordinate the response to this letter with the propaganda analysis people in OO.

ROBERT AMORY, JR.
Deputy Director (Intelligence)
